

GOVERNOR GIFTS FOUR BAMBOO TOILETS TO ASSISI HIGHER SECONDARY SCHOOL

Governor of Nagaland and Assam P.B Acharya today 3rd October 3, 2015 graced as the chief guest at the Parents Day celebration of Assisi Hr. Secondary School, Dimapur.

In his speech, Acharya described India as a pluralistic country and remarked Nagaland as vibrant example of unity in diversity . impressed by the various presentations of the artists he congratulated them and said “you are in safe hands”, while appreciating the staffs and sisters of Assisi school. He lauded the sisters for coming from far flung areas to give knowledge to the children and re-iterated, “work is worship”.

“Identity of a person is language than comes identity as state and the most important is identity of nation’, Acharya maintained and said everyone has a role to play . We are all one especially in a democratic country like India, he further added.

On the occasion the governor of Nagaland assured for providing four(4) bamboo toilets to the school.

The Chairman and Secretary of lake view colony submitted a representation to the Governor requesting for renovation of road from Khermahal police point to Assisi Higher Secondary School on behalf of the parents of Lakeview Assisi Higher Secondary School Dimapur.

On the occasion Provincial Superior of N.E province of Ursuline Franciscan Sisters, Rev. Sr.Milly Fernandes UFS, gave away the prizes to the meritorious students, while Vice- Principal of the school gave the school report.

Highlights of the programme included prayer dance, Angel dance, modern ethnic show, choreography, traditional dance and many more.

Amongst other D.C Dimapur Kesonyu Yhome (IAS), Commissioner of Police, Liremo (IPS), parents attended the parents day celebration of Assisi Higher Secondary School, Dimapur.

DPRO, Dimapur.