

October 30, 2016

Greetings on Diwali

Diwali or Deepavali is known as the festival of lights and one of the most significant and famous festival in India. It is a sacred Hindu festival which symbolizes the triumph of good over evil. The festival is celebrated very enthusiastically to commemorate the returning of Lord Rama to his kingdom, Ayodhya after defeating the demon king Ravana. This is victory over evil.

On this occasion people clean their houses, wear new clothes and at night illuminate their houses with rows of small earthen lamps called Diya. As we celebrate the festival of lights let us also look into our own self and do away with all the evil practices that is all around us and in our own life and let goodness prevail in all spears of life.

Shri P.B. Acharya, Honourable Governor of Nagaland appeal to all to come together on this occasion of victory of good over evil, to do away injustice and corruption that is plaguing our society. Let the Diwali festival bring peace, unity and harmony amongst the different community in the state.

Let us make our state Nagaland Peaceful & Prosperous.

We only can make Nagaland Golden Nagaland.

Let us strive to work together for a strong, prosperous peaceful India.